

THE BEYOND

*It seemeth such a little way to me
Across to that strange country,
The Beyond;
And yet, not strange, for it has grown to be
The home of those of whom I am so fond.*

*And so for me there is no Death;
It is but crossing, with abated breath,
A little strip of sea,
To find one's loved ones waiting
on the shore,
More beautiful, more precious than before.*

A Living Memorial

THE SINGING TOWER, Lake Wales, Florida, was conceived and built by Edward Bok, whose body now lies entombed beneath this dream of marble. A carillon of sixty-one bells sends forth every evening at sunset, in marvelous tones of sweet melody, hymns of hope and good cheer. It is often called the Taj Mahal of America.
