

Lamar, who died at 7:04 p.m. Tuesday at Barton County Memorial Hospital, Lamar, after a sudden illness. Doug Oakes, minister, officiated.

Songs were "If You Knew" and "Bring My Children Home". Jacque Gage was the organist.

Honorary pallbearers were Jim Rogers, Cecil Smith, Dr. Ralph Dimond, Hugh Nutt, Vernon Ring and Andrew Lenz.

Active pallbearers were James Brisbin, Bill Brisbin, Larry Brisbin, Vernon Brisbin, Steve Brisbin and Vernon Brooks.

Burial was in Nashville, Mo. Cemetery, under the direction of Daniel Funeral Home, Lamar.

Contributions may be made to the memorial fund at the First Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Helen Brisbin, of the home; two sons Anthony Brisbin and Joe Brisbin, both of Lamar; a daughter, Nancy Tahhan, Liberal; five brothers, James Brisbin, Bill Brisbin, Vernon Brisbin, Steve Brisbin, and Larry Brisbin, all of Cherokee, Kan.; three sisters, Mary Watson, Louise Brooks, and Gracella Letchworth, all of Cherokee; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Brisbin was born October

29, 1918, in Cherokee, Kan. to John Emerson and Ivy Julia (Newport) Brisbin. He had lived in Barton County since 1949, moving from Pittsburg, Kan. He was the Barton County Director of the A.S.C.S. for 16 years, retiring in 1979. He graduated from Pittsburg State University, Pittsburg, Kan. He was a 30-year-member of the Lamar Lions Club, a longtime member of the National Rifle Association, and member of the First Christian Church in Lamar. He had a lifelong interest in fishing and hunting.

He married Helen Corinne Coslet on May 6, 1943, at Pittsburg, Kan.

JOHN BRISBIN

LAMAR - Services were at 2 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 22, at the First Christian Church, Lamar, for John Albert Brisbin, 77,