

Our Precious Little Angel

Our precious little angel, now in our lives
You lay so still in my arms
I long for you to open your eyes.
My heart aches just to hear you cry.
But you lay so still without a sound, Daddy and I lay aching with our arms wrapped around.
We were stripped from the chance to keep you but, we were indeed given a few moments to kiss and hold you
our precious little angel,
we pray that you are warm and safe.
We love you very much,
we will never forget your beautiful face
we brought you into this world together, now, we must let you go forever.
Somehow we hope that you know,
Daddy and I didn't want to let you go.
